

Single coffee capsule packaging system for various pack configurations utilizing single cup infeed, automated collating into a selected pack pattern, and robotically loaded into a chip board container.

System can utilize glue sealed carton or from a blank.

Speeds are determined by upstream filling machinery.

Complete systems and line integration is available.

